

This is the only school we know.
 Everybody does this many drafts, everybody worries about quality, everybody works hard.
 This is what this school is about.

-Ron Berger, An Ethic of Excellence

Student Expectations for Virtual Instruction (Week 28):

Managing Yourself (Self-Care)

- We recognize that social distancing and virtual school brings many challenges. We know that this is new and overwhelming. We hope that you are able to engage in self-care and wellness strategies.
- If you need help or ideas on what to do, please reach out to your counselor.

Doing Your School Work

- Students are expected to complete all assigned work by the deadlines indicated by their teachers.
- If applicable, students are expected to follow the same process and procedures to request accommodations as outlined in their 504 Plans and IEPs.

Staying In Contact With Teachers & Counselor

- Students are expected to attend any regularly-scheduled counseling or other school appointments.
- Students are expected to reach out to their teachers for office-hours-style help during their regularly scheduled class period.
- If students cannot get help from teachers during the assigned period, students can reach out to teachers via email.
- If students are having difficulty accessing any content, students are expected to reach out to their teachers directly as soon as possible.

Troubleshooting

- Students are expected to contact studentsupport@davincischools.org if they are experiencing difficulties connecting to Google Classroom.
- If students are experiencing difficulty accessing the internet, please contact the front office at (310) 725 - 5800 and leave a message for extension 3043.
